REX BRINGS NRL PREMIERSHIP TROPHY TO REMOTE QUEENSLAND

Regional Express (Rex) is proud to announce its support of the regional tour of the North Queensland Toyota Cowboys' Telstra Premiership Trophy for 2015.

Rex has sponsored the flights of accompanying staff, including the club's Chief Executive Officer Greg Tonner, as the trophy visits remote parts of North Queensland on its tour to regional centres in the club's footprint.

On Monday 19 October the trophy visited members and fans in Hughenden, Richmond, Julia Creek and Mount Isa, and today has visited Doomadgee, Burketown, Mornington Island and Normanton. Following this, the trophy will visit the communities of Bamaga (NPA) this Friday, 23 October, and Winton and Longreach on Tuesday 27 October.

Rex State Manager for Queensland Mr Steve Jones said, "Rex congratulates the North Queensland Cowboys on their win. It is a wonderful time for North Queensland, and Rex is proud to be able to bring the premiership trophy to regional communities to allow residents to be part of the historic celebrations."

Members and fans keen to get up close and personal with the trophy should confirm the schedules on the Cowboys' website at www.cowboys.com.au

Regional Express (Rex) is Australia's largest independent regional airline operating a fleet of more than 40 Saab 340 aircraft on some 1,400 weekly flights to 54 destinations throughout New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, South Australia and Queensland. The Rex Group comprises Regional Express, air freight and charter operator Pel-Air Aviation and Dubbo-based regional airline Air Link, as well as the pilot academy Australian Airline Pilot Academy.
