MEDIA RELEASE

ALL REX FRONTLINE STAFF NOW VACCINATED

Rex today announced all frontline staff on duty have now been fully vaccinated against COVID-19, the first airline in Australia to reach this milestone.

The several hundred vaccinated staff include pilots, flight attendants, customer service officers at airports and all other workers across the Rex domestic and regional networks who may need to interact with passengers face-to-face.

Company-wide, 93 percent of all Rex staff have either been double vaccinated or received their first dose.

“Our employees have overwhelmingly supported the introduction of our Mandatory COVID-19 Vaccination Policy to ensure the health and safety of our staff, passengers, contractors and visitors,” Rex Deputy Chairman, the Hon John Sharp AM, said.

“I would like to thank each and every one of our team members for the way in which they have so quickly responded since work on the Policy began in earnest in mid-September. It was fully implemented in just a few weeks and enabled us to meet our vaccination target date of November 1.”

“When passengers travel with us, they will be secure in the knowledge that their health and safety is, and always will be, our highest priority,” Mr Sharp said.

Rex reopens its domestic network on November 15 with the resumption of flights from Melbourne to Sydney and Canberra. Melbourne - Adelaide flights restart on November 26, while flights to the Gold Coast from Sydney and Melbourne begin on December 17.

The airline’s unique Refund Guarantee Policy also protects the financial health of passengers from any COVID-related disruptions.

Rex is Australia’s largest independent regional and domestic airline operating a fleet of 60 Saab 340 and six Boeing 737-800NG aircraft to 61 destinations throughout all states in Australia. In addition to the airline Rex, the Rex Group comprises wholly owned subsidiaries Pel-Air Aviation (air freight, aeromedical and charter operator) and the two pilot academies, Australian Airline Pilot Academy in Wagga Wagga and Ballarat.
