REX FLYERS CAN NOW USE POINTS FOR FLIGHTS

Rex Flyer members can now use their points to book flights on both Rex Airlines domestic routes and to regional destinations across Australia.

Rex today confirmed the second phase of the program's staggered rollout had been completed enabling members to use their points to redeem flights with three flight reward options – Anytime, Getaway and Ultimate.

Since the program was launched on 2 October, Rex Flyer members have been earning up to seven points for every dollar spent every time they've flown and up to five points for each dollar spent on selected Rex Extras such as additional baggage and seat selection.

More than 60,000 travellers have become registered Rex Flyer members in the last seven weeks. The program is free to join.

Until 2 January every new member receives a 5000-point sign-on bonus while all bookings before the New Year will earn double reward points regardless of the date of travel.

The Rex Flyer program sees all unsold seats progressively available at the cheapest reward redemption rate (Ultimate) from 48 hours before a departure.

Rex is Australia's largest independent regional and domestic airline operating a fleet of 58 Saab 340 and 10 Boeing 737-800NG aircraft to 56 destinations throughout all states in Australia. In addition to the airline Rex, the Rex Group comprises wholly owned subsidiaries Pel-Air Aviation (air freight, aeromedical and charter operator), the Australian Airline Pilot Academy with campuses in Wagga Wagga and Ballarat, and propeller maintenance organisation, Australian Aerospace Propeller Maintenance. Rex is also a 50% shareholder of National Jet Express (NJE), a premier Fly-In-Fly-Out (FIFO), charter and freight operator.
