

RIVERINA

Out and about

FLYING HONOUR: Deputy Prime Minister Warren Truss hands over a special award to Australian Airline Pilot Academy graduate Blair Kingston. Picture: Les Smith

CUCKOO GOES THE LITTLE BIRD: Jackie Forbes with daughter Katie, 7, at the Sam Moran concert at the Civic Theatre. Picture: Kieren L Tilly

READY TO PLAY ALONG: Jenny Locker with daughter Sophie, 4, at the Sam Moran concert at the Civic Theatre. Picture: Kieren L Tilly

DIAMOND YEAR: Nancy and John Doherty celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary with their family at the Pavilion Hotel. Picture: Kieren L Tilly

NEXT GENERATION OF AVIATORS (left): Course 13 and 14 graduate from the Australian Airline Pilot Academy (AAPA) near Wagga Airport. Most AAPA graduates are employed by airline Regional Express. Picture: Les Smith

AWARDED PILOT WINGS: Deputy Prime Minister Warren Truss congratulates Australian Airline Pilot Academy graduate Charles Redman. Picture: Les Smith

FIRST THROUGH THE DOORS (left): David and Merissa Lugton eagerly await the opening night of Wagga Takes Two. Picture: Laura Hardwick

Visit our online photo galleries at dailyadvertiser.com.au

Out and about

GATHERING: There was a healthy crowd at the opening of Regional Express' new flight simulator in Wagga. Picture: Les Smith

PAINTINGS (above): Junee Correctional Centre inmate Paul (centre), with Festival of the Falling Leaf representative Bernadette Walker and Tumut Lifelong Learners Anne Browning, Jeff McAllister and Nick Browning, has created two paintings for the Tumut Lifelong Learners. Picture: Declan Rurenga

FAMILY REUNITED: Australian Airline Pilot Academy graduate Tim Bowler of Albury with his children Mason, 5, and Sienna, 8. Pictures: Les Smith

HIGH ACHIEVER: Deputy Prime Minister Warren Truss chats with Rachel Orr, the recipient of the chairman's award from the Australian Airline Pilot Academy's course 13.

FINISHED: Rachel Blair was among the graduates from course 13 at the Australian Airline Pilot Academy this week.

GRADUATE: Deputy Prime Minister Warren Truss congratulates Jack Trenton on graduating from the Australian Airline Pilot Academy.

READY FOR TAKEOFF: Deputy Prime Minister Warren Truss with Regional Express chief operating officer Garry Filmer at the opening of the Rex Simulator Centre. Picture: Les Smith